Please note that by sending this form along with your T-Shirts plus a deposit constitutes an agreement that Thread Dancer Design Studio may cut your t-shirts to size and the unused portions recycled. After you have had the opportunity to be involved in decisions, I may still need to make slight changes without customer approval and my expert decisions are considered to be pre-approved by you. Once your order is paid, you agree that as a custom product, your quilt may not be returned for a refund, and you accept all final decisions made by Thread Dancer. Thread Dancer agrees to communicate changes or questions. Images of your quilt may be used for marketing purposes.
